

2010 TEXAS STATE JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE MYTHOLOGY TEST

DIRECTIONS: Please mark the letter of the best answer on your scantron answer sheet.

1. He went looking for a bride and upon seeing Persephone, kidnapped her
(A) Apollo                      (B) Hades                      (C) Hermes                      (D) Poseidon
2. This god of warfare was not admired by the Greeks; the Romans loved his counterpart
(A) Ares                      (B) Dionysus                      (C) Hephaestus                      (D) Neptune
3. He eloped with Helen to Troy, causing the Trojan War
(A) Deiphobus                      (B) Ganymede                      (C) Hector                      (D) Paris
4. He led an Expedition to recover the Golden Fleece and bring it back to Greece
(A) Alcmaeon                      (B) Jason                      (C) Melicertes                      (D) Perseus
5. Actaeon saw her bathing and was punished severely, turned into a stag
(A) Aphrodite                      (B) Artemis                      (C) Athena                      (D) Hera
6. Apollo chased her until she became a laurel tree
(A) Clytie                      (B) Daphne                      (C) Macris                      (D) Theophane
7. This half-man, half-bull lived in the Labyrinth until killed by Theseus
(A) Charon                      (B) Geryon                      (C) Minotaur                      (D) Typhoon
8. He killed the Lernaean Hydra
(A) Achilles                      (B) Heracles                      (C) Jason                      (D) Theseus
9. This half-goat half-man woodland deity played the syrinx, a reed instrument
(A) Butes                      (B) Lichas                      (C) Marsyas                      (D) Pan
10. He was the mightiest of the Greek warriors, but Achilles killed him anyway
(A) Aeneas                      (B) Deiphobus                      (C) Hector                      (D) Polydorus
11. He was the father of Romulus and Remus
(A) Apollo                      (B) Mars                      (C) Mercury                      (D) Jupiter
12. Who killed the Calydonian Boar
(A) Atalanta                      (B) Heracles                      (C) Meleager                      (D) Theseus
13. He borrowed his father's chariot and lost control of the wild horses
(A) Aeetes                      (B) Epaphus                      (C) Memnon                      (D) Phaethon
14. These three aged sisters share one eye and one tooth between them
(A) Erinyes                      (B) Graces                      (C) Graeae                      (D) Sirens

15. These hundred-handed giants were allies of Zeus in the war against the Titans
(A) Ancile                      (B) Hecatoncheires      (C) Solymi                      (D) Telchines
16. When her husband Protesilaus died at Troy, his ghost visited her for three hours
(A) Anaxarete                  (B) Evadne                      (C) Laodameia                  (D) Praxithea
17. Driven by love, she aided in obtaining the Golden Fleece with her magical powers
(A) Circe                          (B) Medea                      (C) Nausicaa                      (D) Pasiphae
18. Hephaestus caught him in bed with Aphrodite by means of an invisible net
(A) Ares                          (B) Dionysus                      (C) Hermes                      (D) Poseidon
19. He swam the Hellespont nightly to be with his lover Hero
(A) Acontius                      (B) Daphnis                      (C) Leander                      (D) Vertumnus
20. He refused to turn over the throne of Thebes to his brother when it was time
(A) Antiphates                  (B) Eteocles                      (C) Menoecus                      (D) Polynices
21. This monster was part goat, part lion, and part snake
(A) Chimaera                      (B) Echidna                      (C) Orthrus                      (D) Typhoon
22. Who defeated Periphetes
(A) Achilles                      (B) Heracles                      (C) Odysseus                      (D) Theseus
23. This wise centaur taught many heroes, but he was accidentally killed by an arrow of Heracles
(A) Bienor                          (B) Chiron                      (C) Damastes                      (D) Eurytion
24. He was the husband of Alcmena and the supposed father of Heracles
(A) Amphitryon                  (B) Evenus                      (C) Lycurgus                      (D) Pittheus
25. She is the Muse of History
(A) Clio                              (B) Euterpe                      (C) Polyhymnia                      (D) Terpsichore
26. He captured Pegasus and rode him as he performed heroic acts
(A) Bellerophon                  (B) Meleager                      (C) Perseus                      (D) Theseus
27. She stopped to pick up Golden Apples and lost a race, gained a husband
(A) Atalanta                      (B) Helen                      (C) Merope                      (D) Penelope
28. This lover of Apollo cheated on him, earning death at his hand
(A) Coronis                          (B) Euryale                      (C) Marpessa                      (D) Praxithea
29. Cursed by Apollo, no one would believe her prophecies even though they were true
(A) Ariadne                          (B) Cassandra                      (C) Melanippe                      (D) Sibyl
30. In order to appease the angry deities, he offered his daughter to a sea-monster
(A) Cepheus                          (B) Iamus                      (C) Nausithous                      (D) Teumessus

31. He was a warrior at Troy and a physician to the Greek army
(A) Capharaus (B) Glaucus (C) Machaon (D) Telamon
32. This foolish man disagreed with the judge in the musical contest between Apollo and Pan
(A) Boreas (B) Glaucus (C) Midas (D) Stentor
33. This lover of Clytemnestra helped her kill her husband Agamemnon
(A) Aegisthus (B) Darcleitus (C) Meriones (D) Sthenelus
34. She welcomed the Argonauts to the island of Lesbos, since the wives had killed all their men
(A) Callidice (B) Hypsipyle (C) Merope (D) Rhodope
35. She was cruelly betrayed by her brother-in-law, but she and her sister gained revenge
(A) Clymene (B) Glauce (C) Iphimele (D) Philomela
36. He boasted that no one could stop him now, even the immortal gods; Zeus zapped him
(A) Amphiloachus (B) Capaneus (C) Lycomedes (D) Thersander
37. When Zeus promised her any request, she was able to defend her virginity by a trick
(A) Argeia (B) Deidameia (C) Menodice (D) Sinope
38. Hermes visited her in her bedchamber, though her sister tried to stop him
(A) Aglauros (B) Ismene (C) Lyaniassa (D) Perimele
39. This son of Theseus went to fight at Troy and rescued his grandmother
(A) Acamas (B) Haemon (C) Menoetes (D) Pleisthenes
40. This Heraclid died in a failed attempt to conquer the Peloponnesus
(A) Aristodemus (B) Cephalion (C) Hippostratus (D) Syleus
41. She was kidnapped by pirates, but her brothers Otus and Ephialtes rescue her
(A) Arene (B) Elare (C) Menippe (D) Pancratis
42. Due to the love of this youth, Sarpedon was estranged from his brothers
(A) Adonis (B) Geramus (C) Miletus (D) Phocis
43. This king purchased Auge and later married her and adopted her son
(A) Catreus (B) Euxemeus (C) Leonteus (D) Teuthras
44. She was the loveliest of Priam's daughters; after the Fall of Troy, she fell into a chasm
(A) Ardea (B) Chrysippe (C) Laodice (D) Polymyrde
45. He mistakenly attacked returning Greeks and captured the Palladium; he set it up in his city
(A) Demophon (B) Idomeneus (C) Menelaus (D) Teucer
46. This king of the Dorians was aided by Heracles; he promised a third of his kingdom to him
(A) Aegimus (B) Idaeus (C) Nicostratus (D) Schedius

47. He purified Alcmaeon of murder, gave his daughter to him, later ordered him killed
(A) Arcesilaus (B) Cresophontes (C) Licymnius (D) Phegeus
48. This son of Orestes was defeated by the Heraclids and either killed or fled in exile
(A) Aphareus (B) Lycus (C) Panopeus (D) Tisamenus
49. Castor and Pollux captured the daughters of this man as brides
(A) Deimachus (B) Leucippus (C) Oileus (D) Penelus
50. Kidnapped by her brothers, she was mishandled and died before rescue by her husband
(A) Arene (B) Hyrnetho (C) Myagro (D) Polydora
51. Who killed Cebriones, charioteer of Hector
(A) Achilles (B) Ajax Telamon (C) Odysseus (D) Patroclus
52. This deity smacked Artemis, spilling her arrows and dragging her from the field of battle
(A) Athena (B) Hera (C) Hermes (D) Poseidon
53. This tutor of Achilles goes to him to persuade him to return to battle against the Trojans
(A) Alcimus (B) Chiron (C) Molossus (D) Phoenix
54. He tells Hector to withdraw and fight from the walls of Troy, good advice which he regrets ignoring
(A) Aeneas (B) Deiphobus (C) Paris (D) Polydamas
55. He wounds Aphrodite and Ares in battle at Troy
(A) Achilles (B) Diomedes (C) Menelaus (D) Odysseus
56. Who was the second person to speak with Odysseus in the Underworld
(A) Achilles (B) Agamemnon (C) Anticlea (D) Telamon Ajax
57. Whom did Odysseus NOT see suffering punishment in the Underworld
(A) Ixion (B) Sisyphus (C) Tantalus (D) Tityus
58. This son of Phronios lends his ship to Telemachus to search for news of his father
(A) Clytius (B) Haliartus (C) Naemon (D) Thalpius
59. He was a minstrel in the house of Odysseus; his life was spared by the returning warrior
(A) Bebryces (B) Demodocus (C) Hippasus (D) Phemius
60. This suitor calls Mentor a madman for saying that the suitors had done wrong to Odysseus
(A) Antinous (B) Hippalcimus (C) Leocritus (D) Penelus
61. This sister of Dido tried comfort the abandoned queen
(A) Anna (B) Hilaria (C) Oleandra (D) Thyone
62. He welcomed the Trojan refugees to Sicily on two occasions
(A) Acestes (B) Coroneus (C) Lycomedes (D) Pterelaus

63. He goes to Diomedes to seek assistance against the Trojan refugees
(A) Cepheus (B) Eurytus (C) Nisus (D) Venulus
64. He welcomed Aeneas and the Trojans to Epirus, his recreation of Troy
(A) Antenor (B) Helenus (C) Lycurgus (D) Priam
65. Wife of Aeneas in Italy
(A) Corlene (B) Ialpye (C) Lavinia (D) Theodice
66. This river-god pursued the nymph Arethusa
(A) Achelous (B) Alpheius (C) Po (D) Simois
67. He traded kingdoms with his cousin Perseus
(A) Aristetas (B) Eunomus (C) Megapenthes (D) Siculus
68. She was loved by Poseidon and bore him a son, Taphius, for whom a set of islands are named
(A) Callidice (B) Hippothoe (C) Lycippe (D) Philonoe
69. He lied to Hermes and was willing to reveal the actions of the newborn to Apollo
(A) Battus (B) Hicetaon (C) Oenomaus (D) Taraxippus
70. He was made king of Salamis for killing a dangerous snake
(A) Agamedes (B) Cychreus (C) Icarus (D) Pamphyllus

TIE-BREAKERS: Please mark them as #96 - #100.

96. This former sailor became a follower of Bacchus when he saw the power of the new god
(A) Acoetes (B) Enyalios (C) Hippolochus (D) Phineus
97. He welcomed the Argonauts to his lands; when they landed again at night, they killed him
(A) Cyzicus (B) Hippotas (C) Psamathis (D) Thoas
98. He and his father Nauplius sought vengeance for Palamedes
(A) Athalamenes (B) Hippadamus (C) Oeax (D) Rhexenor
99. Daughter of Adrastus and mother of Diomedes
(A) Arsinoe (B) Deipyle (C) Nauplia (D) Teuthrania
100. Zeus filled this Giant with lust for Hera, then zapped him with a thunderbolt
(A) Aliabades (B) Euphontes (C) Mimas (D) Porphyron