

2013 NJCL Mythology Test

1. Roman goddess of the Hearth and Home, one of the three Virgin Goddesses
A. Aurora                      B. Juno                      C. Minerva                      D. Vesta
2. To save his city, he mounts a hunt for the Calydonian Boar and kills it himself
A. Bellerophon                      B. Jason                      C. Meleager                      D. Theseus
3. He was the Roman god of the Underworld
A. Deimos                      B. Eros                      C. Saturn                      D. Pluto
4. This half man, half bull creature was confined in the Labyrinth and killed by Theseus
A. Echidna                      B. Geryon                      C. Minotaur                      D. Typhoeus
5. The goddess of agriculture
A. Aurora                      B. Demeter                      C. Hera                      D. Thetis
6. An Earth-Mother goddess, she wore a turreted crown; her chariot was pulled by lions
A. Cybele                      B. Erebus                      C. Pryene                      D. Venilia
7. He held the sky upon his shoulders as punishment for opposing Zeus
A. Atlas                      B. Gyges                      C. Polyphorion                      D. Typhoon
8. The goddess of the Dawn, she preceded Apollo across the sky
A. Alesia                      B. Eos                      C. Nemesis                      D. Themis
9. He was the father of Romulus and Remus
A. Apollo                      B. Jupiter                      C. Mars                      D. Vulcan
10. This was the food and drink of the gods
A. curds & whey                      B. garum & grappa                      C. nectar & ambrosia                      D. manna & koumiss
11. He entered a contest with Athena for the patronage of Athens giving a horse to demonstrate his power
A. Ares                      B. Hermes                      C. Jupiter                      D. Poseidon
12. He was the boatman on the river Styx
A. Calphalon                      B. Charon                      C. Chiron                      D. Colophon
13. This lover of Aphrodite went hunting against her objections and was fatally gored by a wild boar
A. Adonis                      B. Endymion                      C. Iasion                      D. Polypoetes
14. He killed his father and married his mother, fulfilling the prophecy
A. Agenor                      B. Iobates                      C. Oedipus                      D. Toxeus
15. The Muses often spent time on this mountain in their pursuits of the arts
A. Dicte                      B. Latmos                      C. Parnassus                      D. Tmolus
16. She was the Muse of sacred music
A. Aglaia                      B. Euphrosyne                      C. Hegemone                      D. Polyhymnia
17. Angry that Lavinia was promised to Aeneas, he led the Latin forces against the Trojans
A. Alcaeus                      B. Canthus                      C. Meriones                      D. Turnus
18. He ignored his father's warnings and foolishly insisted on driving the Chariot of the Sun
A. Epaphus                      B. Icarus                      C. Phaethon                      D. Teucer
19. When Demeter took shelter at her home, the goddess used fire to make this queen's son immortal
A. Aerope                      B. Cyrene                      C. Metaneira                      D. Semiramis
20. The birds of this region were a terrible pest; Heracles drove them away and killed them
A. Arcadia                      B. Lerna                      C. Nemea                      D. Stymphalus
21. He was not able to fight at Troy due to his age, but his sage advice and counsel was valuable there
A. Aeacus                      B. Cadmus                      C. Nestor                      D. Theseus
22. He was a man in the body but a serpent in his legs, the first king of Athens
A. Auster                      B. Cecrops                      C. Erechtheus                      D. Palinurus
23. He lost a sandal while carrying a disguised Hera across a river, an important sign to the king he met
A. Aeacus                      B. Jason                      C. Meleager                      D. Theseus
24. Her father sent her in to lie with a drunken visitor, and she bore him Theseus
A. Aethra                      B. Caunus                      C. Nephele                      D. Rhode

25. Apollo loved this youth, but he was accidentally killed by a discus thrown by the god
 A. Agathon                      B. Hyacinthus                      C. Narcissus                      D. Phaon
26. Perseus had to obtain information from these three sisters, who shared only one eye and tooth
 A. Camenae                      B. Graeae                      C. Moirae                      D. Parcae
27. He killed travelers by tying them to bent pine trees and letting them go; Theseus did the same to him
 A. Antaeus                      B. Cretheus                      C. Periphetes                      D. Sinis
28. She wanted to see Zeus come in all his glory, but the experience was too much and she burnt up
 A. Alcmena                      B. Charila                      C. Leucippe                      D. Semele
29. He rescued his city by mounting a Hunt against the Calydonian Boar, a ferocious gigantic beast
 A. Aeacus                      B. Iphitus                      C. Meleager                      D. Theseus
30. This is the name of the uncatchable vixen chased by Laelaps, the hound which always got its prey
 A. Ancile                      B. Echidna                      C. Orthus                      D. Teumessian
31. She gave honorable burial to her brother, a crime punishable by death
 A. Antigone                      B. Eriphyle                      C. Iolanthe                      D. Perimele
32. He was punished in the Underworld by having food and drink just beyond his reach
 A. Codrus                      B. Ixion                      C. Sisyphus                      D. Tantalus
33. He was turned to stone by Perseus because of his hostility and inhospitality
 A. Atlas                      B. Cacus                      C. Geryon                      D. Steropes
34. This centaur got his revenge on Heracles when the hero put on his poisoned robe, burning his flesh
 A. Bienor                      B. Eurytion                      C. Nessus                      D. Pholus
35. He seduced the wife of Agamemnon, and together they killed him when he returned from Troy
 A. Aegisthus                      B. Enyalius                      C. Leucus                      D. Syleus
36. When the deified Heracles went to Olympus, she became his wife
 A. Calypso                      B. Hebe                      C. Praxithea                      D. Thetis
37. For killing the sacred snake of Ares, he had to serve the god for a Great Year
 A. Admetus                      B. Cadmus                      C. Heracles                      D. Tisamenus
38. The daughter of Menelaus, promised as a bride to Orestes, but given to Neoptolemus, causing strife
 A. Aerope                      B. Hermione                      C. Iphigenia                      D. Polycaste
39. He reneged on his agreement with his brother, refusing to turn over rule of the city to him
 A. Amphion                      B. Eteocles                      C. Oeneus                      D. Strophius
40. He chose suicide because of the acts he committed during his spell of madness
 A. Ajax Telamon                      B. Iarbas                      C. Meriones                      D. Pentheus
41. One of the Hecatoncheires, he came to the aid of Zeus when other gods revolted
 A. Briareus                      B. Gyges                      C. Leontychides                      D. Potidaea
42. This daughter of Priam was sacrificed on the tomb of Achilles to appease his ghost
 A. Electra                      B. Iphianassa                      C. Laodice                      D. Polyxena
43. He complained to his father Zeus Ammon that Aeneas was too much competition for the hand of Dido
 A. Agrius                      B. Iarbas                      C. Menestheus                      D. Pyleus
44. He chased Eurydice until she was bitten by a viper; as punishment, his bees died
 A. Aristaeus                      B. Ennomus                      C. Menodice                      D. Tyrrhenus
45. Her husband Tereus ravished her sister and cut out her tongue; but she got a terrible revenge on him
 A. Alope                      B. Hersilea                      C. Mestra                      D. Procne
46. He was the prophet of the Greeks at Troy
 A. Calchas                      B. Idmon                      C. Mopsus                      D. Tiresias
47. This herald of Heracles brought the poisoned cloak to him unknowingly, and was killed for it
 A. Copreus                      B. Iphimenes                      C. Lichas                      D. Talthybius
48. When he returned home, he was surprised that Zeus had been there before him in his marriage bed
 A. Amphitryon                      B. Cedalion                      C. Merops                      D. Theoclymenus
49. The centaurs were invited to a wedding but got rowdy, fighting with these people, their hosts
 A. Aethiopians                      B. Hyperboreans                      C. Lapiths                      D. Solymi
50. Medea slowed down pursuit by tossing overboard the pieces of this dismembered brother
 A. Absyrtus                      B. Canthus                      C. Haemon                      D. Polydorus

51. He accidentally killed his father-in-law while throwing a club at a stray cow, hitting the man instead
 A. Amphitryon                      B. Iphimenes                      C. Nauplius                      D. Telamon
52. The dreary plains of the Underworld where most shades dwell are covered with this unattractive weed
 A. Asphodel                      B. Dittany                      C. Smilax                      D. Thistle
53. The Potiphar's Wife Motif (younger wife falsely accuses young man of assaulting her) applies to him
 A. Admetus                      B. Dardanus                      C. Hippolytus                      D. Telamon
54. The Potiphar's Wife Motif applies to him, another victim of false accusations
 A. Bellerophon                      B. Erydamas                      C. Meleager                      D. Theseus
55. Again with the Potiphar's Wife Motif!! False accused by his stepmother, poor guy
 A. Athamas                      B. Deimachus                      C. Lynceus                      D. Tenes
56. Once more with the Potiphar's Wife Motif; his host left him defenseless to be killed by wild beasts
 A. Acamas                      B. Demophon                      C. Melanippus                      D. Peleus
57. The son of Evander (as far as we know, there is no connection to Potiphar's Wife Motif)
 A. Caminus                      B. Lausus                      C. Pallas                      D. Scamandrius
58. This lying Greek persuaded the Trojans that the Horse was important them; they took it inside the city
 A. Dolon                      B. Hippomenes                      C. Menoetes                      D. Sinon
59. She bore the Aloadae to Poseidon
 A. Caria                      B. Iphimedia                      C. Malea                      D. Thersilea
60. Which of these was not revealed by Helenus as necessary to conquer Troy
 A. bones of Pelops                      B. Heracles' arrows                      C. Palladium                      D. sacrifice of Iphigenia
61. He was the son of Telamon and Hesione
 A. Amphoterus                      B. Diomedes                      C. Idomeneus                      D. Teucer
62. Odysseus married this queen of the Thesprotians when he journeyed inland to appease Poseidon
 A. Althaea                      B. Callidice                      C. Hypsipyle                      D. Pleisidice
63. He taught Heracles the lyre; he chastised his pupil, hitting him and was struck and killed in return
 A. Amphimus                      B. Iomenes                      C. Linus                      D. Perimander
64. She is the subject of the Farnese Bull sculpture, punished by Antiope's sons for mistreating mom
 A. Argeia                      B. Dirce                      C. Larissa                      D. Periclymene
65. This son of Aphrodite was a king in Sicily; he challenged Heracles to a boxing contest and was killed
 A. Amphidamas                      B. Eryx                      C. Nycteus                      D. Penthilus
66. He almost shot his mother while hunting bears
 A. Arcas                      B. Clymenus                      C. Iphis                      D. Polypoetes
67. It was said that he was the actual father of Odysseus, not Laertes
 A. Eioneus                      B. Ixion                      C. Sisyphus                      D. Tantalus
68. He was the ugliest and most obnoxious Greek at Troy; he was killed for mocking Achilles
 A. Eurydamas                      B. Lysimachus                      C. Oeax                      D. Thersites
69. He and his brother fortified the walls of Thebes; he played the lyre and moved stones
 A. Amphion                      B. Iamus                      C. Oebalus                      D. Xuthus
70. This great musician was a son of Chione and Apollo
 A. Etearchus                      B. Leonteus                      C. Philammon                      D. Thespius
71. He and his lover Comaetho slept together in Athena's shrine, they were punished for it
 A. Epopeus                      B. Idmon                      C. Melanippus                      D. Pronax
72. This Argive warrior guarded the ships of Heracles at Troy, but was killed by the attacking Trojans
 A. Abderus                      B. Hippomachus                      C. Oicles                      D. Telemenes
73. This fire-breathing giant stole the Cattle of Geryon from Heracles as he led them through Italy
 A. Alcioneus                      B. Cacus                      C. Mimas                      D. Porphyriion
74. His sister ransomed him with her veil
 A. Aegeus                      B. Celeus                      C. Hipponous                      D. Podarces
75. He was the son of Hypermnestra and Lynceus
 A. Abas                      B. Eilatus                      C. Lycomenes                      D. Thoas
76. She was bribed with the Necklace of Harmonia to influence her husband
 A. Alcidice                      B. Eripyle                      C. Lirope                      D. Philomene

77. Loveliest daughter of Priam, she disappeared in full view of all into a chasm when the city was taken
 A. Clymene                      B. Hilaria                      C. Laodice                      D. Philonoe
78. This Roman prostitute was locked in Heracles' temple; the god lay with her, advising her on marriage
 A. Calyce                      B. Enarete                      C. Larentia                      D. Tullia
79. It was thought that the ghost of this man scared the chariot horses during the Olympic games
 A. Automedon                      B. Cebriones                      C. Myrtilus                      D. Panthous
80. To cure his madness, he had to find a people that had a strange sacrifice and end their practices
 A. Arbelus                      B. Eurypylus                      C. Menoetius                      D. Teledamas
81. Heracles seduced the daughter of Phylas, king of Ephyra, and she bore him this son
 A. Cteatus                      B. Eurytus                      C. Leonteus                      D. Tlepolemus
82. This Argonaut was left behind in Mysia along with Heracles while they searched for Hylas
 A. Alcathous                      B. Hyrtacus                      C. Manlius                      D. Polyphemus
83. A name for the island home of the Phaeacians, taken from the sickle used on Uranus by Cronus
 A. Anaphe                      B. Drepane                      C. Narita                      D. Sicyon
84. She was a Cretan goddess, daughter of Zeus and Carme
 A. Britomartis                      B. Larissa                      C. Rhodope                      D. Themiste
85. Seduced by Poseidon, she bore Eumolpus; ashamed, she threw him into the sea; Poseidon caught him
 A. Chione                      B. Ianthe                      C. Merope                      D. Theonoe
86. Which of these people did not go to the Underworld on an errand and return safely
 A. Aeneas                      B. Diomedes                      C. Orpheus                      D. Theseus
87. Angered over the rape of his daughter, Ares killed the assailant, this son of Poseidon
 A. Alcaeus                      B. Halitherses                      C. Orchomenus                      D. Thestor
88. When Tiresias fled conquered Thebes, he drank from the waters of this spring and died of shock
 A. Beersheba                      B. Castalian                      C. Pirene                      D. Tilphusa
89. She fed honey to the young Dionysus; driven from her home by Hera, she took refuge on Scheria
 A. Anaxo                      B. Euphrosyne                      C. Macris                      D. Thesmia
90. Her husband Alcmaeon secretly married Callirrhoe and took back his wedding gifts from first wife
 A. Arsinoe                      B. Hermeia                      C. Nyctimene                      D. Sinope
91. This brother-in-law of Priam was a seer; he knew his sons would die if they went to Troy to fight
 A. Alcathous                      B. Iphitus                      C. Merops                      D. Telemenes
92. This river near Patrae was formerly a lovesick youth; it cured that malady to those who bathe in it
 A. Alpheus                      B. Eridanus                      C. Peneus                      D. Selemnus
93. This Argonaut was given a clod of earth by Triton, which he threw into the sea; it became Santorini
 A. Broteas                      B. Euphemus                      C. Leonteus                      D. Thrasymedes
94. This Latin leader and ally of Turnus was conceived when a spark landed in his mother's lap
 A. Aegimus                      B. Caeculus                      C. Lenarchus                      D. Tisamenus
95. She was seduced by Achelous; condemned by her father, she became an island
 A. Astydameia                      B. Idaeia                      C. Laonome                      D. Perimele
96. He was the father of Actaeon
 A. Acarnan                      B. Adrastus                      C. Amphithemis                      D. Aristaeus
97. This Argonaut heard the Siren's song & jumped overboard; Aphrodite rescued him & bore him a son
 A. Butes                      B. Euphemus                      C. Megamedes                      D. Triops
98. Burdened by grief at the death of his daughter, he jumped off a cliff; Apollo changed him into a hawk
 A. Amycus                      B. Daedalion                      C. Oebalus                      D. Tectamon
99. This king of Dardania was the richest man in the world, owner of three thousand horses
 A. Erichthonius                      B. Iphimenes                      C. Molossus                      D. Styphanax
100. This Argonaut was told he would not live to drink the wine from vines he had planted
 A. Ancaeus                      B. Euphorbas                      C. Menestheus                      D. Tiphys